Thanks Jay,

I have forwarded this to partners and asked them to feed back through the link.

I am sure you are aware of the increasing opportunity, through both new and existing planning regulation changes, for the major supermarket chains to increase their high street presence, ie Tesco in Grove Road and Sainsburys proposals in Old Town.

I would be concerned that the cumulative impact policy on alcohol sales for the town centre is robust enough to determine future applications in the light of likely increases in planning applications.

Kind regards

Chris

Dear Jay

On behalf of the Town Centre Neighbourhood Panel I am writing to give our views on the proposed Statement of Licensing Policy. The Panel fully supports the proposed policy and is particularly appreciative of the provisions of the Cumulative Impact Policy. We know from experience the value of these policies and value highly the provisions to address the licensing objectives and the application of the Cumulative Impact Policy to improve the quality of life for Town Centre residents.

Regards

Adrian Ley
Chairman
Eastbourne Town Centre Neighbourhood Panel.
