Eastbourne Borough Council wants local people to have a real influence on Council services and the way the borough develops in the future. To help do this we are recruiting a Citizens Panel for Eastbourne Borough Council. This will be made up of 1000 volunteer residents representative of the whole of Eastbourne with whom the council will consult with once or twice a year on local issues - usually by post or telephone in a manner similar to this. All views expressed will be used by the Council to make future decisions and will help make the area a better place.
