4 Substitute Members

4.1 The Council may, from time to time, approve a list of members of the Council who are appointed to act as substitute members at meetings of committees and other bodies, the list being referred to as "the approved list" in this Procedure Rule.

4.2 A Councillor on the Cabinet or a Standards Panel is not entitled to appoint a substitute. A Councillor on the Cabinet may not be appointed to act as a substitute on the Policy and Performance Advisory Committee or the Audit and Governance Committee.

No Councillor on the approved list shall sit on or act as substitute on the Licensing Committee or Licensing Sub-Committee. No Councillor on the approved list shall sit on or act as substitute for the Planning Applications Committee unless they have undertaken appropriate training and a list of those Councillors who have been trained will be maintained by the Head of Democratic Services.

A Councillor appointed to serve on a Sub-Committee of the Cabinet shall be permitted to appoint a substitute, who must also be a member of the Cabinet and of the same political group as the member unable to attend the meeting.

- 4.6 Subject to compliance with the foregoing and any statutory or other requirements, a substitute member may attend, speak and vote as a member of the committee or other body at the meeting for which he/she is a substitute member, including any adjournment thereof. - 4.7 A member who is unable to attend a meeting shall notify that fact and the name of the substitute member to the Head of Democratic Services, who will arrange for agenda papers to be sent to the substitute member if time permits or for the papers to be available for the substitute member at the meeting.

5 Time and Place of Meetings

The time and place of meetings will be determined by the Council's senior legal officer and notified in the summons.

6 Notice of and Summons to Meetings

6.1 Notice and Summons

The Council's senior legal officer will give notice to the public of the time and place of any meeting in accordance with the Access to Information Rules. At least five clear days before a meeting, the Council's senior legal officer will send a summons signed by the Proper Officer by post to every member of the Council or leave it at their usual place of residence. The summons will give the date, time and place of each meeting and specify the business to be transacted, and will be accompanied by such reports as are available.

6.2 Numbering

The Minutes of the Cabinet or other committee which require confirmation by the Council, shall be circulated with the Council Summons and (so far as is practicable) in date and consecutive number order.

6.3 Items for Ratification

Only such items of the proceedings of the Cabinet or other Committee which require ratification by the Council shall be circulated with the Council Summons.

6.4 Call-Over

A member wishing to speak on or vote against any such recommendation may, immediately the number of the item has been called by the Council's senior legal officer, reserve it for debate.
- (b) After the Council's senior legal officer shall have called over all the items as aforesaid, the Chair shall move a motion that the recommendations of the Cabinet or other committee, with the exception of those items which have been reserved, be received and adopted.

- (c) The Chair of the Cabinet or other committee shall separately move each item on the proceedings of his/her committee which has been reserved.

7 Chair of Meeting

8 Officers Speaking

No officer may be called upon to speak at Council meetings, without the consent of the Chair of the Council. However, with such consent, an officer may contribute by way of answers to a question to clarify a point or to alert Council to factual inaccuracies in any report. With the consent of the Chair, Directors, together with officers holding statutory positions, shall not be prevented from addressing the Council where they see fit to do so and so far as they act within the law.

9 Quorum

The quorum of a meeting will be one quarter of the whole number of members. During any meeting if the chairman counts the number of members present and declares there is not a quorum present, then the meeting will adjourn immediately. Remaining business will be considered at a time and date fixed by the Chair. If he/she does not fix a date, the remaining business will be considered at the next ordinary meeting. One quarter of 41 members is 11.

10 Duration of Meeting

Unless the majority of members present vote for the meeting to continue, any meeting that has lasted for 4½ hours will adjourn immediately. A Councillor who has spoken on a proposal may not speak again whilst it is the subject of debate, except:

17.2 Motion Similar to one Previously Rejected

A motion or amendment in similar terms to one that has been rejected at a meeting of Council in the past six months cannot be moved unless the notice of motion or amendment is signed by at least 5 members. Once the motion or amendment is dealt with, no one can propose a similar motion or amendment for six months.

18 Voting

18.1 Majority

Unless this Constitution provides otherwise, any matter will be decided by a simple majority of those members voting for or against (which must be at least equal to the quorum) and present in the room at the time the question was put. If no such majority is achieved, then debate on the motion shall continue to try and obtain such a majority. If the required majority cannot be obtained, then the motion will fail.

18.2 Chair's Casting Vote

If there are equal numbers of votes for and against, the Chair will have a second or casting vote. There will be no restriction on how the Chair chooses to exercise a casting vote.

If five members present at the meeting demand it, the names for and against the motion or amendment or abstaining from voting will be taken down in writing and entered into the minutes. A demand for a recorded vote will override a demand for a ballot.

18.6 Recorded Vote on Budget and Council Tax setting

This is a mandatory standing order under the Local Authorities (Standing Orders) (England) (Amendment) Regulations 2014

Immediately after a vote is taken on any decision relating to the budget or council tax, the names for and against the motion or amendment or abstaining from voting will be taken down in writing and entered into the minutes.

18.7 Right to Require Individual Vote to be Recorded

This is a mandatory standing order under the Local Authorities (Standing Orders) Regulations 1993.

Where any member requests it immediately after the vote is taken, their vote will be so recorded in the minutes to show whether they voted for or against the motion or abstained from voting.

18.8 Voting on Appointments

If there are more than two people nominated for any position to be filled and there is not a clear majority of votes cast in favour of one person, then the name of the person with the least number of votes will be taken off the list and a new vote taken. The process will continue until there is a majority of votes for one person.
